The movement of anti-Russian resistance movement in Hungary, 7/16/47 is a considerable security threat, particularly in the British zone in Austria. In spite of their pro-British pretensions members of the party on what they regard as the certainty that there was between East and West. Recent activities included the running of a courier service from the British zone in Austria to Hungary, attempts to set in touch with the THERED movement in Transylvania, etc. (See also case in Austria files)

For information on origin of movement, see document.
